Following Broad Guidelines to be considered by the TPC for allotment of Division to LSG: -

- a) Upon promotion to LSG posts, and subject to the availability of vacancies, officials shall be allotted to the same Division as far as possible. If allotment to the same Division is not feasible, they may be posted to a nearby Division.
- b) While allotting Divisions to newly promoted officials, pending transfer request for change in Division shall be considered first before allotment of Division to newly promoted officials.

Note: For Postman, Mail Guard, MTS and equivalent Cadres and other Units, which are not covered above, Circle will make similar Committees.

- 2. In addition to above, following are also clarified -
 - (i) For first review of the allotments/transfers/postings in the Circles' next authority higher than the approving authority may be the Competent Authority. For second and last review, the next authority higher than the first reviewing authority may be the Competent Authority. In case CPMG is the approving authority or the first reviewing authority' review may rest only with CPMG and cases need not be sent to the Postal Directorate.
 - (ii) If post of any member/chairman of the committee is vacant, the officer (holding/looking after the additional charge of the said post) may be the member/chairman of the Committee as the case may be.
- 3. Any guidelines / instructions, issued earlier, containing provisions which are contrary to what have been stated in this communication shall be deemed to have been modified to the extent mentioned.
- 4. Contents of this letter may be brought to the notice of all concerned for information and strict compliance.
- 5. This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
